COMMITTEE REPORTS

Sick and Vigil:

Andy Feszczyszyn is out of the hospital but unsure of where he is.

George Schmidt is still in Monroe Community Hospital. Patty Anuskiewicz indicated he is "fair". Mike Anuskiewicz asked for prayers for his son Peter who is recovering from surgery at Unity Hospital.

OLD BUSINESS

- Retreat: No one has volunteered to coordinate the retreat as of yet. Gene Sydor took the floor: Gene is willing to coordinate the retreat, with the help of Mike Anuskiewicz, for 2 years only. Gene shared a picture of the retreat leaders from 1966 and noted that this is the only lay retreat and aligns well with the vibrant parish initiative. Gene would be willing to coordinate if there is a volunteer to assume the coordinator role after 2 years and under the condition that there are volunteers to assist. Dick Samson asked for clarification on the type of help needed and indicated he may be able to help. Gene and Mike mentioned financial accounting, registering attendees, contacting clergy to encourage attendance, arranging for icons, prayer books, etc. to get to the retreat house, helping set up the chapel for liturgy as some of the tasks. Gene and Mike felt that 2 additional volunteers would be sufficient. If anyone can assist, please contact Ron.

- Spaghetti Dinner: Pre-cooking spaghetti and making meatballs will begin at 9 am on Saturday the 16th. St. Anne's will sell coffee and baked goods. Signs have been updated and just need to be put out. Tom Brillbeck has contacted all of the advertising outlets and Ron has posted an event update on Facebook.

NEW BUSINESS

- Pussy willows: Gene Sydor showed a willow that he had cut and forced to blossom. We should plan on harvesting on Saturday the 16th starting at 9 am. Buckets should be in the church basement. We will need about 6 people to harvest and trim and please bring tools, cutters, etc. After harvesting they will be placed in the sacristy and monitored daily. When ready they will be removed from water and replaced in the buckets.
- Easter Assistance: The following week, help will be needed to separate palms. Ron will try to find out when they will be delivered by the florist. Help also will be needed for the following activities:
 - Holy Thursday - Set up of the tomb following liturgy (approx. 9pm).
 - Good Friday – Need people to attend and participate in liturgy.
 - Holy Saturday - please sign up for a time slot for the vigil. Sign up sheet is on HNS board in lower level of Church.
 - Holy Saturday - 1-2 volunteers for assistance at the blessing of food
 - Easter Sunday Sunrise Service – Mike J. & Mark E. to remove the tomb. Need people to carry shroud, banners, cross, etc. for procession.
